

Applications for postdoctoral positions are highly welcome. If you obtained a Ph.D. in inorganic chemistry or material science and have fundamental knowledge in synthesis and characterization of materials, please send your application to aschoedel@fit.edu including the following:

- Cover letter
- CV including a list of publications
- A research summary or research highlights.
- A short description of potential research interests.